

MUNICIPALITY OF SEQUALS

Very big in size Carnera, but very small the place he came from! The “good giant”, as he was called, who by dint of punches became first world heavyweight champion, was born and died in this community, which still preserves intact the memory of its athlete in the villa-museum in which he spent part of his life and where he closed his eyes for always. This is the area from which a great many floor-layers left to produced grand flooring all over the world.
