

MUNICIPALITY OF FIUME VENETO

The fortune of this territory is due to the river Fiume that silently splits the town in two and to the numerous small rivulets that silently follow their course. In the past and today also, the force of the river is used to work paddlewheels and provide energy for cardboard factories and works placed in the vicinity of the channels. For enthusiasts of cartoons, every year in the third week of September there is the Fiumettopolix cartoon world market exhibition.
