

MUNICIPALITY OF PORCIA

A pearl set among the fabric of an ancient splendour, with castles and villas of unchanged beauty. To protect and give prominence to the architecture, an enviable natural heritage is formed by pools, springs and watercourses in which the buildings are reflected. Past and present co-exist in harmony, because of the presence outside the historic town walls of the largest plant of the Swedish multinational Electrolux, once Zanussi-Rex. At the end of April the Napoleonic battle of the Camolli is commemorated.
